

MINISTRY OF COOPERATION, GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
MODEL COOPERATIVE SOCIETIES (ELECTION & GOVERNANCE) RULES 2025

Chapter V: General Meetings and Election Notifications

Rule 21: Notice Period for Annual General Meetings

Every Primary Agricultural Credit Society (PACS) shall convene its Annual General Meeting (AGM) by giving at least 14 clear days notice in writing to all registered voting members. The notice must specify the date, time, venue, and agenda items.

Rule 24: Voting Procedure and Secret Ballot

All elections to the Managing Committee shall be conducted strictly by secret ballot supervised by a Returning Officer appointed by the District Cooperative Election Authority. No open voting or voting by proxy is permissible under any circumstances.

Rule 26: Minimum Voter Eligibility and Patronage

A member shall be eligible to exercise voting rights in the election of the Managing Committee only if:

- a) The member has been an active member of the Society for at least 12 continuous months.
- b) The member has conducted minimum patronage transactions of at least Rs. 2,500 (through credit, fertilizer, or crop procurement) with the Society during the preceding financial year.
- c) The member is not a willful defaulter on any PACS loan installment for more than 90 days on the date of publication of the electoral roll.

Rule 28: Term of Committee and Election Deadlines

The tenure of the Managing Committee shall be exactly five years from the date of election. The election process for constituting the next Managing Committee must be concluded at least 30 calendar days prior to the expiration of the incumbent committee term.
